Akan Ancestral Religion of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in North America

Nhoma - Journal - 13017

“...Hoodoo. Ndu [oohn-dooh’]. medicine, healing, rootwork, conjure. Ancestral Religion, born of the blood-circles of our Akan Ancestresses and Ancestors of West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) and ancient Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa), ancient Khanit (Nubia), those of our family who were forced into North America during the Mmusuo Kese, the Great Perversity, the enslavement era. However, as we were transported, we brought our Ancestral Religion with us. And it was upon the foundation of our Ancestral Religion, upon the foundation of Hoodoo, that our revolts against the whites and their offspring, against enslavement and our subsequent independence through warfare were laid.

When we had children, we drew our Nsamanfo, our Ancestresses and Ancestors, into the womb to return to Asaase Afua (Earth Mother) once again. The knowledge of the religion and culture, the knowledge of Hoodoo, was written into their Okra/Okraa, written into their Soul, their Divine Consciousness by Nyamewaa and Nyame, Our Great Mother and Great Father, Supreme Being. As they grew and developed they accessed this Ancestral knowledge and incorporated it into every aspect of their lives..

This is transcarnational transmission of culture, the intergenerational spiri-genetic transmission of culture which was and is impervious to being broken through the horrors of the Mmusuo Kese (enslavement).

Hoodoo Mayn.. Hoodoo Nation.. The restoration of Akan Ancestral Religion in North America born of the blood-circles of our people, the Akan Ancestresses and Ancestors who continue to return. It is through Hoodoo that we were sustained and it is through Hoodoo that we will fulfill our function, complete our mission, defeat our enemies and restore our sacred Ancestral Order...”

HOODOO MAYN

Hoodoo Nation Festival

Akan Ancestral Religion of Afurakanu/Afuraikaitnut (Africans) in North America

October 16, 13017 (2016)

1901 Mississippi Ave, SE • Washington DC 20020

Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu, the Akwamu Nation in North America, welcomes the Afurakanu/Afuraikaitnit (African~Black) community in to our second annual HOODOO MAYN - Hoodoo Nation Festival. Our focus is restoring the consciousness of Akan Ancestral Identity as Hoodoo in family blood-circles, culture and ritual preserved in the Western Hemisphere for centuries.

HOODOO MAYN [hoooh'-doooh mah'-eehn] is defined in the Akan language as Hoodoo Nation

HOODOO MAYN is the only festival of its kind, celebrating and examining our Akan [ah-kahn'] Ancestral Religion as brought to North America in the blood-circles of our Akan Ancestresses and Ancestors and maintained to this day. It was through Hoodoo that we were guided and empowered to heal ourselves, educate ourselves, sustain ourselves, train ourselves, wage war against the whites and their offspring and force the end of enslavement in North America. It is through Hoodoo that Akan people in North America today will complete our Revolutionary-Resolutionary function of Amanne, Nationism, as a component of the larger collective of Odwiraman, Purified Nation - Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) in the Western hemisphere.

Hoodoo is open to Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) only, for the Abosom and Nsamanfo (Deities and Ancestral Spirits) are inherited via our direct spiri-genetic blood circles, our Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral clans, via reincarnation. All non-Black individuals and groups are excluded from this inheritance and thus ritual practice without exception. The corruptions of Hoodoo deliberately propagated by the whites and their offspring will be exposed inclusive of the reality that Jesus/Yeshua, Moses, Abraham, Hebrews, Muhammad, Allah, Yahweh, etc. are absolutely fictional characters who never existed. Moreover, the Bible, Quran, Hinduism, Kabbalism, European pseudo-folk-magic, pseudo-‘native’-American ‘spirituality’, Wicca, New-Age pseudo spirituality, ‘devil worship’, extraterrestrialism, dissexuality/homosexuality, promiscuity, other forms of sexual deviance, marijuana, alcohol and other drug use have absolutely nothing to do with Hoodoo – The Akan Religion in North America. Our Ancestral Religion is today what it has been for thousands of years: the ritual incorporation of Divine Law and the ritual restoration of Divine Balance. We align ourselves with Divine Order, and thus The Mother and Father Supreme Being, Nyamewaa and Nyame, through the agency of the Deities and Ancestral Spirits, Abosom and Nsamanfo, who are assigned to us and through whose spiri-genetic blood-circles we are continually reborn.

The term nhoma in Akan means ‘book, publication, journal’. HOODOO MAYN Nhoma is the official publication of HOODOO MAYN given freely to attendees of our event. The free e-book version can also be found on our website. In our nhoma you will find information on Hoodoo from an authentic Akan perspective as well as the itinerary for the program, information regarding the presenters, the list of vendors from our EGUA - Marketplace and an Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) business directory of businesses, organizations and institutions who are serving the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) community in a positive capacity and whose Ancestral Religious practice informs their service to us as a community.

Yeda ase (we thank you) for supporting our efforts..

HOODOO PEOPLE: Restoring Akan Identity

When Akan people from the region of contemporary Ghana and Ivory Coast, West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) were forced into the western hemisphere as prisoners of war they continued to practice Akan Ancestral Religion. The Akan term ndu (oohn-dooH') meaning 'medicine' from 'roots, trees, plants', also meaning

'to become heavy with the spirit', became the general term for Akan Ancestral Religion in North America. Ndu came to be pronounced Hoodoo. The terms ndu (hoodoo), kankye (conjure), mogya (mojo), agya and agyapade (jack, jack ball), hintin (haunt), dwo (shout), komfo (goofah) and others are all Akan terms born of the cosmology of Akan Ancestral Religion and culture. The ritual practices and cosmological knowledge expressed through these terms are proof of this reality. Hoodoo is not a 'magico-botanical' art, mixed with European and pseudo-native-American practices. Hoodoo is the Akan Ancestral Religion born of the blood-circles of Akan people in North America, a comprehensive Ancestral Religion spanning thousands of years which is passed down to us only via our spiri-genetic Ancestresses and Ancestors. The misdefining of the term Hoodoo and its later use as a general term for any form of African Religion in the Southern United States is a recent phenomenon.

Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan will examine these issues in detail proving the spiri-genetic Akan foundation and transmission of Hoodoo as delineated in his book HOODOO PEOPLE as well as AKRADINBOSOM which demonstrates how we maintained our akradin, soul-names, and our Soular identity based upon the Abosom (Deities) governing the Okra/Okraa (Soul) and the 7-day week in North America.

Odwirafo Kwesi Ra Nehem Ptah Akhan of Aakhuamuman Amaruka Atifi Mu, the Akwamu Nation in North America, is an Odumafo, traditional diviner of Hoodoo passed down through the blood-circles of his Aakhuamu (Akwamu) Ancestresses and Ancestors for centuries in Mississippi, Alabama and Chicago. Asuman, talismans and amulets, in Akan culture are containers of the tumi, the Divine Spiritual Power, of the Abosom (Deities) and carry the Ancestral tumi of the Nananom Nsamanfo (our Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors). Our capacity to ritually impregnate talismans and amulets with tumi, guided by the Abosom and Nsamanfo who were assigned to us pre-incarnation, was carried in the blood-circles of our people into the Western Hemisphere.

The use of asuman for offensive and defensive purposes, for healing medicine and for killing our enemies as we waged war on various levels (military, chemical and biological warfare, spiritual warfare) was and is a key component of the Hoodoo which forced the end of enslavement. The employment of asuman continues as we work to overcome physical and spiritual (including mental and behavioral) illnesses, protect ourselves from internal and external threats, overcome court cases, repel disordered spirits and more. Afia Asase Bretuo will examine these issues rooted in her Ancestrally inherited practice of fashioning Hoodoo Asuman.

Ndu (Hoodoo), medicine, from ndua – plants, leaves, roots – is foundational for our physical and spiritual realignment with Divine Order. The properties found in plant life as well as mineral life are empowered by the asunsum, spirits, of the plants and minerals as well as the Asunsum, the Spirits, of the Abosom (Deities) who govern the various classes of plant life, mineral life and the blood-circles of Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) people.

The use of ndu as medicine for offensive and defensive purposes, for healing ourselves and for killing our enemies as we waged war on various levels (military, chemical and biological warfare, spiritual warfare) was and is a key component of the Hoodoo which forced the end of enslavement. The employment of ndu continues as we work to overcome physical and spiritual (including mental and behavioral) illnesses, protect ourselves from internal and external threats, overcome court cases, repel disordered spirits and more.

Amma Asaase Ajay has a method of extracting the proper combination of elements from plant life and mineral life in order to create tinctures for the healing of various issues. These formulas and compounds in the form of tinctures are some of the many products Amma offers through Asaase Heals. Her method of acquiring root medicine is guided by her Nananom Nsamanfo (Spiritually Cultivated Ancestresses and Ancestors) and the Abosom (Deities/Spirit-Forces in Creation). This is a key component of Hoodoo as maintained through our Ancestral blood-circles.

KANKYE

Akan Origin of the term ‘Conjure’ as Hoodoo

In our publication, HOODOO PEOPLE: Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) in North America – Akan Custodians of Hoodoo from Ancient Hoodoo/Udunu Land (Khanit/Nubia), we proved conclusively that the term Hoodoo is the Akan term ndu (oohn-dooh) referencing ‘medicine’ from ‘roots, trees, plants’. The term ndu also means to bring down a spirit, to become heavy with the spirit. We demonstrate this in the Akan language as well as our Ancestral language of ancient Khanit and Kamit (Nubia and Egypt).

The calling down of a spirit during ritual work and to become heavy with the spirit via spirit-possession is called ‘conjure’. It is for this reason that the Akan Ancestral Religion in North America is called Hoodoo and also Conjure. However, the term ‘conjure’ as a descriptive of ritual practice is not rooted in European languages. The term vocalized as ‘conjure’ when referencing Hoodoo by Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans~Black People) in North America is actually the Akan term kankye.

The term kankye is vocalized in the Twi language of the Akan as kahn-chay. This term used by Akan people for over a millennium in West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa) means to invoke, call the Abosom (Deities), Nsamanfo (Ancestral Spirits) and Nyamewaa-Nyame, the Great Mother and Father Supreme Being ritually. The term kankye is the verb form while nkankye is the noun form. When Akan speakers were forced into North America during the Mmusuo Kese (Great Perversity/Enslavement era) we continued to speak our language and practice our religion. We thus continued to use the term ndu (Hoodoo) to reference our ritual means of procuring medicine, rootwork, through invocation and evocation of the Abosom and Nsamanfo, Deities and Ancestral Spirits. We continued to use the term kankye (conjure) to reference our ritual process by which we called down the Spirits. When an Akan speaker enunciated the term kankye (kahn-chay) in reference to calling down a Spirit, the whites and their offspring translated this term as ‘conjure’. Their assumption was that we were mispronouncing the word conjure with an Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) southern, ebonic dialect thus sounding like ‘conjuh’ or ‘conjeh’. In reality, we were saying kankye all along.

An excerpt from the Asante-Fante Dictionary by J.G. Christaller first published in 12881 (1881):

kankyé, v. [inf. ɪ-] to pray, rehearse or speak a prayer; to invoke or call upon (the fetish). Mek. me tirim; mek. mabɔ mpas = mekã asɛɲ-kɔ a migyina so merɛbɛbɛ mpas; merɛk. mã me bosom na wahwe me ɲkwã so. — Obi yare a.s. ofom bosom a, ɔde nsã ana oguan de kãmã ɔbosom na ɔsofo no k. mã no se ɔmfa mfiri no a.s. ne hõ nye no deɲ. — ɔsofo atifi na wɛkankye bɔ, di nsew hwehwe nokware.

ɲkankyé, inf. prayer, invocation. Wɔbefi ase akankye (a.s. asɔre) kankyerekyere a, wose: Onyankɔpɔn nɛ asase, mómmeɲye nsã nnom, ansã-na afei wɔafra ɔbosom biara, asɛre no ɲkwã, sika, mma, ahɔto n.a.

kankye, v. [obs.] to make a sign with straight or curved lines on a level surface. D. As.

kankye, a mark made by a stroke or line. D. As.

As we can see, the term kankye is a verb descriptive of to pray, to invoke or call upon the Deity. The european uses the derogatory term ‘fetish’ in place of Obosom (Deity). However, we see that the Akan informant who is quoted in italics, uses Obosom when describing the term kankye in context. Note also that kankye is descriptive of making marks or lines. This is part of the ritual process wherein sacred symbols are drawn to invoke and evoke the Abosom and Nsamanfo and ‘draw Them down’. These symbols are included in the adinkra symbol corpus of Akan culture and are similar to veves used in Vodoun.

The construction of the term kankye is ka and kye. The term ka in the Twi/Akan language means to emit a sound, speak, say, tell:

kã, v. [red. kekã] to emit a sound, to utter, speak, say, tell. pr. 1492 f.; cf. kasa, se, be, besebese, bɔ 75-82, woro; - agyinamoa kã ne menewam', the cat emits a sound from its throat, i.e. it

It is important to demonstrate that this term is ancient and goes back to our Ancestral language of Khanit and Kamit. We thus have the ancient term ka meaning to speak, say, tell in the medutu (hieroglyphs) [From An Hieroglyphic Dictionary, Vols. 1-2, by E.A. Wallis Budge]:

kai
 P. 1116B, 62, to think, to think out, to devise, to meditate, to speak, to repeat, to say, cry out, call out, tell out, to sing; varr.

Note that there are three variations of the spelling of the term above. The second variation which includes the medutu of the bowl, the bird and the man pointing to his mouth is written KA as opposed to KAI. All of the root words and their thousands of expressions in the Akan language are found in the language of ancient Kamit and Khanit unchanged over thousands of years. This is our Ancestral language. The related use of the term ka means to surrender oneself to the Obosom (misnomered ‘fetish’ in the entry) or patron Spirit:

ká: ˘bu ká = bə bosom, to surrender one's self to a fetish or patron spirit;
cf. aká, akabú.

We have the term Ka meaning ‘Soul, Divine Consciousness’ in ancient Kamit, also called Ka or Kara (Kra) in Akan with the same definition. The Ka is also associated with the Ba (Divine Living Energy of the Spirit Body). The title Hem Ka in ancient Kamit thus identifies a class of priesthood/priestesshood which references one as a servant (hem) of the Ka (Soul Divinity).

kyekyɛ, red. v. [cf. kyere, kyekyere] 1. to bind, tie (up), bind together. pr. 1923. — 2. to gird, girde; wakyekye n'asen = wabɔ ne hɔ so. — 3. to precipitate, form a sediment, to thicken, inspissate, coalesce, concrete, congeal; abūrow, dote no aky. (after being dissolved in water or soaked). — 4. to grow or become firm, hard, solid: ɔdɛ no aky. kakra ara gyɛnɛ. — 5. ky. kūrow, to build a town. pr. 447. —

As we can see the term kye (chay) means a coming forth, to come forth into light, to appear. When we call, invoke the Abosom and Nsamanfo (Deities and Ancestral Spirits) ritually, They come forth, appear. They come down and possess our people or manifest in their spirit-form so that they can be seen. This is kankye (conjeh, conjure) in action. The related term kye meaning to become hard references the concretization, manifestation of the spirit into the physical world. They can take up residence in the body of a person through possession, as well as in a shrine, talisman or amulet. The immaterial Spirit has now been concretized, housed, in a physical vessel. We thus have the reduplication of the term kyekyɛ, meaning to bind, form a sediment, thicken, coalesce, concrete, congeal.

 (in Nubian texts, e.g., III, 140), to rise like the sun, or like a king on his throne, to ascend, to shine, to appear (of a god or king in a festal procession); , crowned; Copt. .

As we can see above, the term khai in the medutu includes the 'kh' combination which can be pronounced like the 'ch' in 'check' or the 'ch' in 'character'. The vocalization for khai (chay) is found in the same Akan term kye (chay). The medut of the Aten (Sun) emerging, appearing, above the horizon at sunrise with the rays shooting upward:  encompasses the definition: to rise, to shine, to appear. The dawning of a new day is the appearance of the Aten (Sun). The invisible, hidden power that can be felt warming the Earth in the darkness now makes its appearance. This is why in Akan culture we say ma akye or me ma wo akye which means 'I (me) give (ma) you (wo) dawning (akye)'. The phrase 'I give or bid you dawning' is the way that Akan people say 'Good morning'. It means 'I give you good rising.' It is the appearance of the Aten (Sun) and thus rejuvenation. It is the spiritual power of the Divinity manifesting in the world. Once again, the term kye (khai) is one that Akan people have utilized for thousands of years.

The term kankye is the calling, invoking through ritual prayer the Abosom and Nsamanfo, so that they can literally appear (kye, khai). It is a ritual means by which we cause the Abosom and Nsamanfo to ‘come forth’ for possession and communication: kan-kye.

This is the cosmological foundation of ‘conjure’ which is not a term that we learned from the whites and their offspring. The term kankye is a term we have used for thousands of years. Our Akan Ancestresses and Ancestors continued to utilize this term once forced upon the shores of North America. When we invoked the Abosom and Nsamanfo for guidance in order to heal ourselves and kill our enemies, we were engaged in kankye. It is a term that we continue to use to this day, unchanged in sound and meaning. Hoodoo and Conjure, Ndu and Kankye, properly define our ritual practice as Akan people in North America, an Ancestrally inherited practice born of our spiro-genetic blood-circles which can never be broken.

AMANEHUNU

amanne-hūnu, inf. [hū amane] suffering, affliction, tribulation, trouble, adver-

An Akan term for suffering, affliction, is amanehunu.

It is important to note that amanehunu is not encoded within our Okra/Okraa (Soul/Divine Consciousness) as part of our nkra/nkrabea - the Divine function we are given to execute in the world by Nyamewaa-Nyame [Amenet and Amen], the Great Mother and Great Father Who Together Comprise the Supreme Being.

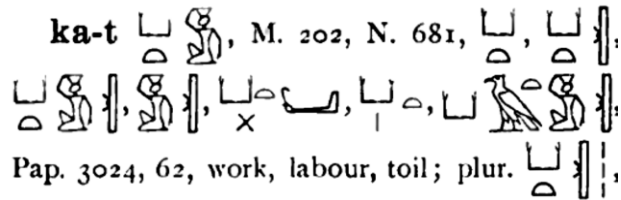

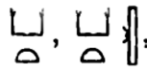

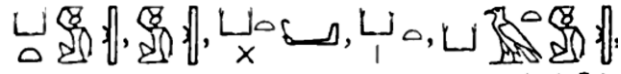

Suffering arises out of our disalignment from our Okra/Okraa and hence our nkra/nkrabea which is encoded within our Okra/Okraa.

[See our publication: The Okra/Okraa Complex - The Soul of Akanfo for details about the Okra/Okraa (Ka/Kait) the Soul/Divine Consciousness of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans): www.odwirafo.com/nhoma.html]

The term karma is said to be derived from kwer ('proto-indo-european') meaning 'to make' or 'to do'. It also refers to the effects of our actions. This is because the term kwer or kwar (kwr) is derived from Ka and Kar (Kara) in Kamit (Kra/Nkra/Nka/Ka in Akan). Ka not only means 'soul' and 'shrine' (kara) but also 'to speak', 'debt', 'work, toil, labour' (ka.t - what is to be done/made - to do, to make).

Karma or Krma is Krabaa or Krabea in Akan. Our nkra/nkrabea is what we are ‘to do’ and the ‘manner’ in which we are ‘to do’. Inherent in this nkra (n-ka-ra) is the notion of ekaa (debt in Akan). This is why there are such phrases as karmic debt, ‘what is owed’ - the effects of causal actions. This is also why some refer to karma as ‘fate’ and nkrabea is often translated as ‘fate’ by europeans.

kaa, v. F. = kae. — r-kaa, pl. a-, F.

ḡkrá-béa [kra 8, bea, manner] fate, destiny, appointed lot, allotted life, final lot, manner of death; syn. hye-bea, pr. 1762 f. 2638: Onyame ḡk. nni ḡkwatibea, what God has destined cannot be evaded; there is no evading fate. Wobewo wo a, na wo asem a ò-k'rá, òkára, F. s-, pl. a- [con. né k'ra, né kára] 1. the soul of man, pr. 11.

However, Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) have a full understanding of nkra/nkrabea. This is because nkra/nkrabea is our Divine function in Creation - which the whites and their offspring do not have. Because they have no purpose in the world, they are always attempting to philosophically escape from the world (‘going to heaven’ in the west; ‘escaping the cycle of reincarnation’ in the east). They also endeavor to make us believe we have no purpose and therefore we should seek escape from the world (while they dominate the world’s resources).

When we become disaligned from our Okra/Okraa, through misguided thoughts, intentions and actions we place ourselves in disorder and will naturally experience the effects of disorder. If one touches a flame they will get burned. If one ingests poison they will become ill. If one projects perverse thoughts, intentions and engages in perverse behaviors, those disordered vibrations are received by others (living and discarnate). Those individuals, living and discarnate who are on the same frequency will be attracted to such thoughts, intentions and actions and the person who projects them. You then draw disordered individuals to you.

Your conscious and unconscious interaction with them engenders more disordered energy/magnetism, disordered effects, etc. We experience this as amanehunu or suffering, affliction at some point.

Ritually realigning with the Okra/Okraa works to repel the negative, disordered individuals and or entities and restore a sense of balance. However, all of the damage is not immediately repaired.

If one gets shot, the bullet being lodged in the tissue is a disordered situation. When the bullet is surgically removed and the person is sewed up, the immediate disorder has been addressed. However, the wound is not fully healed. Further infection could occur if one is not focused. Even if further infection does not occur because the wound is kept clean, the wound is not totally healed even when the stitches are removed. The body operates according to physiological cycles and there will be a time period where pain and some suffering will continue until the body can fully heal the wound.

When we engage in disorder and open a wound in our khaibit (ancient Kamiti term for aura), infection/disordered entities can set in. We can then suffer from various manifestations of such an infection. If we do not realign with our Okra/Okraa the disorder will continue. It is akin to not addressing a pain and allowing the pain (tumor) to grow until there is a crisis situation.

Just as we can die from not addressing a tumor and find ourselves in the spirit realm, so can we die without addressing a spiritual wound/infection.

We can later reincarnate, still not having addressed the infection - thereby remaining open to further infection. Yet, we are newborns, so it is the responsibility of the community to have structures in place that can identify infection of the spirit and support a healing process (structures include divination, other ritual practices, etc.).

Our disalignment from our Okra/Okraa in the previous lifetime could have come about through ignorance, negligence, arrogance, immaturity or through criminality. There are some individuals for example who in a previous lifetime brutalized people and seem to have never suffered for it. Yet, every person that is born is a returning spirit. Such an individual, because of his lust, is drawn into a womb of a descendant, in a certain area and situation where he will ultimately be positioned (have positioned himself) to have a 'wonderful life' for years until one day he is severely brutalized and paralyzed. In this case, the criminal has suffered the effects of the perversity he set in motion. He drew disordered spirits to him in a previous lifetime and continued to do so in this lifetime. Every time we see an individual suffering (homeless, paralyzed, etc.) we have to be more cognizant. Is this person one who has caused suffering and has now inherited the effects of his actions? If so, he deserves the suffering and we should not attempt to assist him in any fashion. Maybe this person was a child abuser, murderer, etc. We should not step in the way of this Divine retribution.

Yet, there are some who suffer as children and adults, because of a previous lifetime where an infection of the spirit was opened as a result of ignorance, immaturity, etc. This is an indictment upon the entire community. We have personal responsibility to align with our Okra/Okraa, yet we also have a collective responsibility as an oman (community) to have structures in place (culture) which will protect people and place the people on the path to alignment and realignment with the Okra/Okraa (a major function of Nanasom – Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion). When we do not do so, or are neglectful as a community, we allow individuals to fall into disorder - perpetual disorder. They die in disorder. They return via bebra (Akan for reincarnation) and some have the infection of the spirit that is still ‘open’. They draw disordered entities (parasites) to them - just like any open wound. They suffer from child molestation, abuse, enslavement of a village, etc.

If a 2 year-old walks out into the street and gets hit by a car, the community does not blame the 2 year-old. The community blames the parent for not having a structure in place whereby the 2 year-old would never be able to be in a position to ever be hit by a car. While the ‘2 year-old’ is actually a returning Ancestor or Ancestress and may have placed themselves in a negative situation, a disordered state, in a previous lifetime (out of ignorance or immaturity) thereby being drawn into a womb of a descendant which would place them in such a negative situation - there still exists a communal responsibility to acknowledge this possibility and establish cultural structures to prevent such occurrences.

For example, a very ignorant, immature, self-destructive individual lives a life of disalignment from the Okra/Okraa and dies this way. They become a discarnate spirit who is full of anxiety. At some point they reincarnate through one of their descendants - [they do have an Okra, but are disaligned from it/disobedient]. They are drawn into a womb of a descendant who in some ways is on the same low-vibration/frequency (or else they could have possibly been drawn into a different descendant’s womb). They have not been ‘healed’ of their infection from one incarnation to the next. They therefore are still a magnet for parasites/bacteria like any open wound - specifically if the community/family they are born into are controlled by white culture/spiritual infection/disalignment from the Okra/Okraa intergenerationally - and thus have no structures in place to mitigate potential negative scenarios.

This ‘child’ is the same Ancestor or Ancestress who previously lived a life of disorder and is now operating through a new body. Because this old spirit in a new body is still a magnet for parasites, parasitical individuals and/or entities attach themselves or are drawn to the individual. This ‘child’ then suffers (injuries, molestation, abuse, etc.).

From whence did the amanehunu come?

While the 'child' in a previous lifetime may have created an infection within his/her spirit (through disorder/disalignment from the Okra/Okraa) there were two opportunities for the community to have avoided the negative results in this present incarnation:

1) When the individual died in the previous incarnation, sound funerary practices (by the family) could have assisted the discarnate individual with making a transition to Asamando (Ancestral Realm) so that they could work on their own spiritual development - to repair their spiritual wounds as much as possible so that they could reincarnate in a situation that was more harmonious

2) When the returning spirit reincarnated, the community could have had ritual structures in place to assess the spiritual condition of the child and once assessed established protocols to assist the child in repelling disordered entities, as well as living individuals, who are parasitical. While the child would still encounter challenges in life, the nature of the challenges would be much less severe (falling off of a bike and scratching your chin on the concrete as opposed to getting hit by a car and suffering major injuries for example)

It is true that the individual had a personal responsibility in a previous lifetime to not allow him/herself to become spiritually disordered - and therefore a magnet for all kinds of parasites (just as we have a responsibility to take care of our bodies so that we do not become a magnet for all kinds of bacteria). However, everyone will not always be in-tune spiritually. This is why we have amammere/culture - protocols established to assist those who are not spiritually mature enough to keep themselves out of harm's way (just as we establish rules to make sure the baby never gets near the street).

There is a balance between individual responsibility (transcarnational - through successive reincarnations) and communal responsibility. We are living the negative effects of the imbalance today. This is the main reason why the whites and their offspring always seek to destroy our culture and keep us from understanding the laws of bebra (reincarnation). They know that when we neglect the laws, we will not have a proper/full view of the world and our condition. We will therefore continually reincarnate making the same mistakes.

In order to limit amanehunu, suffering, to a bare minimum going forward, we must constantly seek to remain in alignment with our Okra/Okraa so that we can make decisions that are harmonious. We must also establish cultural structures that perpetuate this practice - thereby affecting the larger Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) community (consciously and unconsciously). We have the capacity to stop the cycle of transcarnational amanehunu. It is rooted in our Amammere.

*With regard to crime - part of the cultural structure includes the punishment of criminals. Our normal practice worldwide as Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) for example is to kill a child molester, not give him access to therapy. The same is true for murderers, rapists, those who beat, torture, maim others and various other serious crimes. We punish immediately and with the requisite level of severity. This greatly decreases the incidence of crime - transcarnationally - when one is absolutely certain that they will never escape retribution for crime in the community.

AKUMA TRA

Trauma Recovery Alignment in the Afurakani/Afuraitkaitnit (African) Community

AKUMA TRA is a process designed to show:

The nature of amanehunu - trauma, suffering - in the Afurakani/ Afuraitkaitnit (African~Black) community as a result of life experiences and their relatedness or unrelatedness to bebra and nkra/nkrabea - Akan terms for reincarnation and Divinely allotted function-mission (origin of the term 'karma')

Spirit-possession, Ancestral Spirit communication and Deity communication being falsely and deliberately diagnosed as 'mental illness' as an act of warfare against the Afurakani/ Afuraitkaitnit (African) community by the whites and their offspring. The war is psychological as well as chemical and biological, as the psychotropic medications prescribed attack melanin - the chemical which gives us our color yet also regulates our brains (neuromelanin)

Conditioned suppression within ourselves and our children of clairvoyance, clairaudience, clarisentience, clairgustance, clairaliene, clairtimiance and clairequibrance (the capacity to see discarnate (deceased) spirits, hear them, feel them, 'taste' them, 'smell' them, experience a shift in the time continuum and a shift in your capacity to maintain your balance when discarnate spirits are present) as an act of war by the whites and their offspring and their pseudo-religions upon the spirits of Afurakanu/ Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) and Nanasom - Afurakani/ Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion - the only true, authentic religion in existence.*

The fictional characters including jesus, moses, muhammed, abraham, yahweh, allah, brahmin, buddha, etc. were deliberately manufactured to brainwash Afurakanu/ Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) into worshipping whites - our enemies - and rejecting reality. Our spiritual experiences and those of our children are then labeled 'evil', 'witchcraft', 'demonic'. When we accept these foolish, false labels we become traumatized when we and/or our children continue to experience various forms of spiritual communication. This leads to acts of suppression, which leads to depression and stress, which in turn can lead to physical ailments, addictions (alcohol, tobacco, marijuana, other drugs, food, negative relationships, sexual deviance (inclusive of dissexuality/ homosexuality and copulating with non-Afurakanu/ non-Afuraitkaitnut (non-Africans) - all of whom are spirits of disorder, etc.) and other self-destructive behaviors including self-inflicted injuries and suicidal ideation.

The pathway to trauma recovery alignment utilizing tools inherent within our Nanasom - Afurakani/ Afuraitkaitnit (African) Ancestral Religion

AKUMA (ah-koo'-mah) means axe in the Twi language of the Akan of West Afuraka/Afuraitkait (Africa). The Akuma is represented in the adinkra symbolism of Akan culture and associated with the following ebe (proverb):

There is no tree that cannot be cut down with an axe.

AKUMA shows us that there is no problem that we, Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans), cannot solve. It matters not how large an obstacle appears to be, we have the capacity to remove it. We have the capacity to cut down anything that stands in the way of our proper growth, development and security.

TRA (trah) means to go beyond, surpass in the Twi language and to overcome in the language of ancient Khanit and Kamit (ancient Nubia and Egypt).

Trauma is a great obstacle to the proper growth, development and stability of Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans). AKUMA TRA embodies the reality that you have encoded within your own Okra/Okraa (Ka/Kait - Soul/Divine Consciousness) the directives to utilize your spirit's capacity in the form of Akuma, the axe, to completely surpass, overcome and remove this obstacle and restore Order to your life. Through this process of recovery and alignment you clear the way to your highest aspirations.

Trauma Recovery Alignment

For those Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) are presently suffering under the weight of various forms of trauma and/or have in the past, we work to assist them in recovery-alignment. For those Afurakanu/Afuraitkaitnut (Africans) who have never suffered from debilitating trauma we work to strengthen them and assist them in strengthening others.
